

CHAPTER- 5

REASONS FOR COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGES – TECHNOLOGY, MANAGEMENT, BRAND, AND INTANGIBLE RESOURCES

In this chapter, we continue exploring reasons for competitive advantages. Here, we will look at technology, management, branding, intangible resources, and alliances as the source of competitive advantages. Once again, our focus would be on advantages that cannot be replicated by other companies. Read on to know more!

1. TECHNOLOGY

Companies can derive advantages over competitors through the technology they develop. This is especially true in industries where the development period for the supporting technology is quite high. Let us understand this with a few examples.
