

Finer details are chased
(cut) into the gold

Holes where mask
would have been attached to the
face with twine

Chin is prominent,
unlike other indistinct
masks of the period

Mask of Agamemnon | c.1500 BCE | Gold mask, repoussé method | Discovered in a burial shaft designated Grave V, at the site Grave Circle A, Mycenae