Indian jewels

Sapphires, rubies, garnets – India has been famed for centuries as a source of some of the world's most precious gemstones, a treasure trove matched by the skills of its goldsmiths and jewellers. Cultural traditions and techniques flowing from India to Europe and the USA and back have enhanced the jewellery of both East and West. Many of the pieces here come from the vast collection of Sheikh Hamad bin Abdullah Al Thani, which holds some of the world's rarest Indian jewels.
