Non-Operating Revenue

We will now move on to Non-operating revenue. We will go to Revenue from operations and consider only other income. We get this from notes to accounts.

(G) Liquidity risk management

Liquidity risk is the risk that the Group will encounter difficulty in raising funds to meet commitments associated with financial instruments that are settled by delivering cash or another financial asset. Liquidity risk may result from an inability to sell a financial asset quickly at close to its fair value.

The Group has an established liquidity risk management framework for managing its short term, medium term and long term funding and liquidity management requirements. The Group's exposure to liquidity risk arises primarily from mismatches of the maturities of financial assets and liabilities. The Group manages the liquidity risk by maintaining adequate funds in cash and cash equivalents. The Group also has adequate credit facilities agreed with banks to ensure that there is sufficient cash to meet all its normal operating commitments in a timely and cost-effective manner.

(i) Liquidity risk tables

The following tables detail the Group's remaining contractual maturity for its derivative and non-derivative financial liabilities with agreed repayment periods. The tables have been drawn up based on the undiscounted cash flows of financial liabilities based on the earliest date on which the group will be liable to pay.

The tables include both interest and principal cash flows. To the extent that interest flows are floating rate, the undiscounted amount is derived from interest rate curves at the end of the reporting period.

We see here that the company has earned Interest and Dividends. These fall under non-operating revenue. This is mainly because interest and dividend are not from operations but financial decisions of the company i.e. non-operating decisions. The third category that can be added is Other non-operating revenue. We can see that the numbers are relatively small.

We see that interest stands at Rs. 17 Cr for 2021, Dividends at Rs. 1 Cr, and Others at Rs. 62 Cr.

Similarly, Interest for 2020 is Rs. 12 Cr while Dividends and Others stand at Rs. 12 Cr and Rs. 125 Cr, respectively.
