

If the numbers are large here, we must understand the form of investment that has been utilized - Equity, Debt etc.

The company discloses in notes to accounts the form of investments, whether debt, equity, or MF. If the company needs money in the short term, it usually invests in debt and not in equity-related investments.

In the next section, we will discuss Other Assets and Cash and Cash Equivalents.