

The next important thing to keep in mind is the past behaviour of assets for a particular company. Ideally over time, a company's overall share of productive assets should increase and the unproductive assets must decrease.

▲
Productive assets

▼
Unproductive assets

Other questions that need to be asked are-

What are the major forms in which productive fixed assets are being utilized?

QUESTIONS TO BE ASKED

 LIVE

What are the major forms in which productive fixed assets are being utilized?
19:45

As seen, the company has large investments in plant and machinery which are productive assets. The segment where most assets are utilized is the adhesives and sealant market. We can find this data in the notes to accounts of the financial statements.

