

As mentioned earlier, it is mandatory for the company to disclose all the business segments it operates, which contributes more than 10% of the company's consolidated revenue.

EXAMPLE

If a company's sales are 1000 Crores, they have to disclose all segments that do more than 100 Crores in sales.

In the next unit, we will look at employee benefit expenses and move ahead with filling up our income statement and balance sheet.