

From the above data, you can see the different stock option programs that the company has run. You can also see

The number of stocks issued.
 The grant date for the stock.
 The exercise price of the stock.
 The fair value on the grant date.
 The current value of the company's stock, which is essentially the fair value as of today.

All the mentioned items have to be taken into account to understand what the value should be currently. This note can be used to understand the different stocks and their issue prices.

However, the overall expense for the year can be found in the Employee Benefit Expenses section. We must count Share based compensation related expenses as non-yearly expense.

(₹ in crores)
37	Employee Benefits Expense
	For the year ended 31 st March 2021	For the year ended 31 st March 2020
Salaries and Wages	884.38	833.74
Contribution to Provident and Other Funds (refer Note 51)	55.28	50.83
Share-based Payments to Employees (refer Note 49)	17.24	14.44
Staff Welfare Expenses	23.96	28.21
TOTAL	980.86	927.22

We must understand what part of Employee Expenses is attached to yearly payments and what part is related to non-recurring payments. We must understand how the company uses its ESOPs. We will understand more about this going ahead.
