

If you do not have an execution strategy in place, then it will be difficult to raise the first cheque. If you don't know where you will get the raw materials for your business, where you will find the correct talent, how you will market the products, and where you will find the distributors, your business idea won't be funded.

If you are not thinking in the right direction and it does not align with the investors, you will find raising your first cheque challenging.

3. LACK OF EXECUTION PLAN

4. LACK OF TRACTION

If you cannot really prove that what you are doing is working, the investors will not be comfortable. Most likely, the fundraising will not go through. Traction is also a very big factor when you are talking to investors. Only when they know that everything is working do they give confidence and comfort to

It's
