

It is very important to keep working on your business until you see some early traction. And this is where an early external investor like an Angel will come in.

So, whatever the case is, your first investors will start backing you after you have early traction.

At this stage, you have some early traction, and you can show the Angels that you are ready to scale.

→angels

→ F traction

ks