

01 COLD MESSAGE ON LINKEDIN

So after identifying an investor via subscription through an angel network or a blog, the best way to reach out to them is by sending a cold message on LinkedIn. You can send something like:

Something like this can work perfectly on LinkedIn. If the investor is interested in you and the space you are working in. They can quickly glance at your pitch deck and decide whether they want to meet you. If they want to connect with you, they can easily follow up at the same place.

Cold message is one of the most effective ways to reach out to people in general. However, if you have someone specific in mind and they are not on LinkedIn, you have to reach out to them through other channels of communication.

If you are spending half an hour a day over LinkedIn, connecting with people would be a good idea.
