

4. HIGH FRICTION IN THE COLD. IT WORKS, BUT RECOMMENDATIONS IMPROVE CHANCES.

Cold messaging works. Also Cold messaging is the only way where you can reach out to large number of investors who are not connected. However, there is higher friction. So, for example, if you get one in 3 meetings from recommendations, you will get only 1 in 6 meetings from cold conversations. Even though friction is high, you can reach to a large number of investors via cold reach out. Have a balance between the two. You never know which call can open up for you.

While doing this, you must not lose track of your core business. Reaching out for recommendations or investors reach outs can y easily lose focus on busi- e are just ways to connect,
