

This is the elevator pitch that you must prepare and practice. You can experiment with multiple elevator pitches. You should share it at different points with different people for feedback. You can share it in writing or verbally, depending on your setup and how you reach out to potential investors.

By now you have understood how to prepare a pitch deck and an elevator pitch. You have understood how to identify investors and how to reach out to them. Now would be good time to start reaching out to investors to set up meetings.

In the next chapter, we will move forward to the next step discuss about pitching. Let's say that you have got a meeting. What to do here? What to expect? How to be better prepared. Let's discuss in the next chapter.
