

Round 3

Now, using this capital, your business will continue growing to, say, 1 crore revenue per month.

Round 2

Suppose you've raised 70 lakhs in the initial round and will need around 3 crores in the next round.

Investors might ask for such milestones. Even though these numbers will hardly be true, they want to see your thought process behind the business.

They would want to understand the bigger picture and how you are looking at the same.
