

3. COMPETITIVE LANDSCAPE

This document will discuss the different companies operating in your market. You can explain this by creating quadrants. You can include any two factors on the matrix and put them on X and Y axes.

You can now score different companies in these four quadrants based on the two factors that have been identified.

