

6. CUSTOMER CHECKS AND FEEDBACK

The investors might ask you to provide information about a few surveys, net promoter scores, or any information you have collected from your customers regarding your products. They might even ask for a couple of customer references and call them to get their feedback.

7. TECH FLOW

This document will be about the technology that you are planning to use or already using. Do you have the relevant team or skill and can the technologies be scaled post raising capital. Investors might want answer to those.
