

9. ESOP POOL

You may set aside a part of your shareholding for the new employees who will join your company. These employees will be issued stock options.

So you have to set aside a part of the company to attract talent limited capital. Investors might ask about the size of ESOP pool you are setting aside and how you intend to use the same.

You will typically be setting aside an ESOP pool of size between 5% and 15% depending on the nature of your business the team that is required.
