

VALUATION

means

How much do you think your company is worth today?

For example:

You need to estimate a valuation for your company that is fair for you as well as investors who are coming onboard. If the valuation is too high or too low, it will not work with either party.

I ask for 2 crores for 10% of my company

Okay, it's a deal.

