

For example, the investors might let the other companies know that your company is looking for someone who can help manage the marketing side of things. The Chief Marketing Officer in the other company may know of people who are looking for opportunities.

As a result, the investors assist you in finding experienced leads and talent referrals. These are not individuals that you can meet and judge for yourself. This can really help you close positions quickly and move ahead with the business.

For example, we got an incredibly talented react developer through the investor network. In the future, when more se [redacted] reference even over a relatively ing interviewed, the leads or [redacted] time and can help the busi-duced by the investors also become critical. ness grow quickly. This is because those are referred leads.

So don't focus only on the capital. Look for the overall value you get. All these can make [redacted] time and can help the busi-ness grow quickly.