

Other possible clauses include anti-dilution, right to match, etc.

Right to match means that the investors have the right to match any subsequent rounds. This gives them the right to participate.

Other clauses can also prohibit you from selling shares at values lower than what they bought the shares for.

The agreement is written down by a lawyer and then agreed and signed by both parties.

F

ties. KS