

DUE DILIGENCE REPORT

The paperwork takes time to get ready. SHA itself can take weeks to be done. At times, investors will ask for a due diligence report. The investors try and evaluate everything claimed by you so far. They can appoint their members to come to your office and look into numbers or appoint an external firm to look into your numbers and claims.

If the due diligence round does not match your claims, the investors may decide to call off the fund raise.

F

ks