

Fundraising is a time consuming process, and it is crucial to plan operations without it for a period of time. Managing finances beyond fundraising are important to sustain as you can be creative in the initial days. With more and more growth, it becomes difficult to sustain without capital.

Some companies get the required capital in 5-7 pitches

However, many companies get funds after 80-90 pitches, and some companies even fail to get any capital after that.

F

ks