

03 DO YOU HAVE A BUSINESS PLAN TO SCALE?

Once you know the market and have a solution that is working, next thing is to have a business plan to scale the same. You need answers to questions like:

You must have clear answers to such questions and investors will want to understand these. Also, lot of these answers will change overtime, but you do need basic understanding to begin with.

04 DO YOU SEE A LARGE MARKET OPPORTUNITY?

Suppose you are doing something and it is working. For example, if you sell 10 units of product, do you think you can sell 10000 units of product in approximately 2 years? If so, then there is a clear market opportunity that can be leveraged. If the opportunity is not large enough, raising additional capital may not be the best decision.
