

In this book, we'll discuss how we raised our 1st crore.

Here we will discuss the basics and the steps that you, as a founder, should learn to raise your first cheque for your business. This book on "Start-Up Fund-raise" will be pretty exciting for you and also for us as here we will discuss everything we have gone through while going through the process. We will also share the experience of other founders.

While developing the book, we recalled all the mistakes & the bad decisions we made while looking for the first set of investors for Zebra Learn.
