

04

EFFORT, TIME

So basically, there are two types of returns:

Return on Capital

Return on Effort

This is when you put as many hours of hard work into your business as possible. Due to limited capital, you will do most of the things by yourself.

You want to invest in efforts and creativity as possible at this stage. This will help you find traction sooner, if the business has value.

F

ks