

4. B2B (Hotels, Restaurants, QSRs, Food Packages, etc.)

Gains

- Required Gains
 - Consistency in quality
 - Cost conscious
- Desired Gains
 - Branded products for consistency across its chain
 - Regular availability
 - Value-added products
- Unexpected Gains
 - High shelf life in inventory
 - Logistics convenient packaging

Pains

- Lack of regular supply in required quantity
- Logistics issues

Pain Relievers

- SMPs procured for regular supply
- Focus on shelf life

Gain Creators

- New product innovations
- FSSAI approved
- Consistent procurement from similar cattle for consistency

B2C customers: They are divided into urban and rural customers and have customer profile as discussed above.