

How to create Profit Pool and how to benefit from it?

Entrepreneurs/Investors should use a profit pool to identify how companies can scale by performing certain activities and what returns can be expected. It is a very powerful tool while the business model of a company is being developed. Here, early stage entrepreneurs are better off focusing on activities that are more profitable than others.