

Major Industry Risks

Risk refers to any form of uncertainty that affects the business positively or negatively. Almost all businesses have some form of uncertainty or the other and are thus affected by the risks. Risks vary in the frequency with which they occur and the impact they may have once they occur. They affect a business's ability to operate directly or indirectly.

This section primarily focuses on identifying the industry-specific risks and tries to evaluate the frequency and impact of these risks