

The Battle of Fisher's Hill

A period Currier & Ives lithograph depicts the moment when Federal cavalry drove Confederates from their entrenchments during the Battle of Fisher's Hill, September 22, 1864.

“He just moved around our flank, swept down upon it, and whipped us out of existence.”

CONFEDERATE GENERAL JOHN B. GORDON, ON SHERIDAN'S VICTORY AT CEDAR CREEK