

The Raid at Harpers Ferry

On October 16, 1859, abolitionist John Brown and 21 men, including five free Black men and three of Brown's sons, crossed the Potomac River and marched to Harpers Ferry, Virginia, in the rain. They cut telegraph lines, rounded up hostages, and seized parts of the federal arsenal.