

Sherman and Johnston

After Lee's surrender at Appomattox Court House, General Joseph E. Johnston commands the largest Confederate force still in the field. He surrenders to Sherman 17 days later at Bennett Place, a farm near Raleigh, North Carolina.