

1871

FEBRUARY

Congress passes a second Ku Klux Klan Act.

Ku Klux Klan targets a Black family at home

APRIL

Congress passes a third Ku Klux Klan Act. President Grant initially takes effective steps to enforce it, but by the time it is struck down by the Supreme Court in 1883, it has long since become a dead letter.

MAY

A dispute with Britain over the operations of British-built Confederate commerce-raiding warships is resolved, with compensation to be settled by an arbitration tribunal.