

Senator Rhodes Revels

In 1870, Republican Hiram Rhodes Revels (far left) was elected a senator for the state of Mississippi. He is shown here with some of the first Black members of the House of Representatives.

“ All persons born or naturalized in the United States ... are citizens of the United States ... ”

SECTION 1 OF THE 14TH AMENDMENT TO THE U.S. CONSTITUTION,
RATIFIED IN 1868