

OCTAVIUS V. CATTO,

Assassinated in Philadelphia, Oct. 10th, 1871.

One more Martyr to the cause of Constitutional Liberty.

Civil rights martyr

Just 32 when he died, Catto was born in Charleston, South Carolina, but grew up mainly in Philadelphia. He was an enthusiastic baseball player and one of the founders of the successful Black Pythian Base Ball Club of Philadelphia.