

FLORIDA

Camp Milton Historic Preserve

Home to more than 8,000 soldiers in 1864, Camp Milton was the largest encampment of Confederate forces in Florida. The park has an educational center, a reenactment field, a farmhouse, and access to a historic railroad line.

<https://www.exploresouthernhistory.com/campmilton.html>

Fort Pickens

The largest fort to defend Pensacola Bay and its navy yard, this was one of four forts never to fall to Confederate forces.

<http://www.nps.gov/guis/planyourvisit/fort-pickens.htm>

Olustee Battlefield State Historic Site

Commemorates the largest Civil War battle in Florida, which took place on February 20, 1864. In proportion to the number of troops involved, it was one of the bloodiest battles of the war.

<http://www.floridastateparks.org>

GEORGIA

Andersonville National Historic Site

Camp Sumter, commonly called Andersonville, was one of the largest military prisons established by the Confederacy during the Civil War. More than 45,000 Union soldiers were imprisoned in Camp Sumter during its 14 months of existence.

<http://www.nps.gov/ande>

Chickamauga and Chattanooga National Military Park

This, the first national military park, honors Civil War soldiers who fought for control of Chattanooga—the Gateway to the Deep South—in the fall of 1863. The battlefield includes sections on both sides of the Georgia/Tennessee border.

<http://www.nps.gov/chch>

Fort Pulaski National Monument