

The war starts

Fort Sumter, Charleston, comes under Confederate attack on April 12. Earlier Major Robert Anderson, the commander of the Union garrison, transferred men from Fort Moultrie to the more easily defensible Fort Sumter.