

JULY

JULY 4

In a special session of Congress, President Lincoln speaks of the indivisibility of the Union and calls for 400,000 volunteers to defeat "domestic foes."

Call for Union volunteers

JULY 5

Confederate troops win a minor victory at Carthage, in southwest Missouri.

JULY 13

A Union victory at Carrick's Ford, Virginia, concludes a series of Union successes.