

British and French involvement

In this cartoon, Jefferson Davis assails a Union soldier with a club marked "Alabama"—a reference to the Confederate ships being built in England. John Bull, representing Britain, and Napoleon III look on.