

5 Zouave fez of the 114th Pennsylvania Volunteer Infantry. Zouave units were raised by both sides in the war and initially sported highly colorful uniforms.

6 Officer's epaulets. Epaulets were specified for all U.S. Army officers in 1832. They were fastened to the shoulder by a strap.