

Monitor's commander

John Worden was a lieutenant when he took command of USS Monitor in January 1861. He recovered from his wound at Hampton Roads, retiring from the navy as a rear admiral in 1886.