

Army of the Potomac

McClellan established a vast camp for his 120,000-strong army on the banks of the Pamunkey River near Richmond in May 1862. This panoramic view by James Hope shows McClellan riding in the foreground.