

Union signal officers

The Union Signal Corps played a vital role in tracking the enemy during the invasion. They collected intelligence, surveyed the battlefield, and sent messages.