

APRIL

APRIL 7

Admiral Samuel F. Du Pont leads an unsuccessful Union naval assault on Charleston, South Carolina.

APRIL 16-17

Union gunboats and transports pass Vicksburg in a daring night move. General Ulysses S. Grant's army is meanwhile concentrating to the south, at Hard Times.

Union gunboats slip past Vicksburg

APRIL 17

Colonel Benjamin Grierson leads Union cavalry from La Grange, Tennessee, on what will be a three-week raid through Mississippi and Louisiana, to Baton Rouge, distracting Confederate generals from the growing threat to Vicksburg.