

Congressman David Wilmot

Wilmot himself proposed his proviso on essentially racist grounds. He intended to preserve Western lands for white men free of "the disgrace" of mixing slavery and free labor.