

ABOLITIONIST AND ACTIVIST Born c.1820 Died 1913

Harriet Tubman

Tubman's iron resolution

With grim determination and knowing no fear, Tubman escorted more than 70 enslaved people to freedom—including most of her own family. She would later note that on all her journeys, she “never lost a passenger.”