

CONFEDERATE LIEUTENANT GENERAL Born 1821 Died 1904

James Longstreet

Rapid promotion

Longstreet, here photographed by Mathew Brady during the war, was promoted from lieutenant colonel to major general within four months of accepting his commission. Lee trusted him implicitly, affectionately calling him "my old warhorse."