

DOUGLASS'S WRITING DESK, CEDAR HILL

- 1881 Publishes his final autobiography, The Life and Times of Frederick Douglass.
- 1889-91 Accepts post of U.S. minister resident and consul general to Haiti.
- February 20, 1895 Dies in Washington after giving a speech to the National Council of Women.