

The Battle of Cedar Creek

General Philip Sheridan reverses Union fortunes at the Battle of Cedar Creek after galloping 12 miles (19km) to rally his troops. "Sheridan's Ride" is later immortalized in verse and in this painting by poet-artist Thomas Buchanan Read.