

An anti-McClellan broadside

To the left, Lincoln stands for "Union and Liberty," shaking hands with free labor. To the right, McClellan, personifies "Union and Slavery," shaking hands with Jefferson Davis, a slave auction in the background.

“God gave us Lincoln and Liberty, let us fight for both.”

ULYSSES S. GRANT, IN A TOAST DURING THE VICKSBURG CAMPAIGN,
FEBRUARY 22, 1863