Lincoln's second inaugural address, on March 4, 1865, stressed that Reconstruction of the defeated Confederacy should be undertaken with national healing in mind.

LINCOLN'S SECOND INAUGURATION

LINCOLN'S ASSASSINATION

President Lincoln served only four months of his second term. On April 14, just days after Robert E. Lee's surrender to Grant at Appomattox (see The Appomattox Campaign), Lincoln was assassinated (see The Assassination of Lincoln). Eight months later, on December 18, 1865, the 13th Amendment to the Constitution, abolishing slavery in the United States, was officially enacted.
